In addition to flagship initiatives and cross-cutting work on the economic recovery, the EU Green Deal and transatlantic trade, our sectoral advocacy work remained a priority. We focused on the issues that are most impactful to you through our committee meetings, position papers and consultation responses that fed into relevant policy conversations and ensured that AmCham EU's voice was represented to all relevant stakeholders. While we engaged on numerous horizontal as well as vertical EU policy issues and debates, we wanted to share a snapshot as a reminder of some of our 2020 highlights.

In 2020, AmCham EU navigated nimbly the immense uncertainty brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic. We strove to maintain business continuity from day one and swiftly adapted the delivery of our value proposition and member services to fit the new reality.

Over this past year, we have showcased our member companies' considerable efforts to mitigate the impact of COVID-19. We have also effectively delivered key messages to EU stakeholders regarding your contributions, ideas and support for the EU as a whole, the economic recovery and the Single Market. We have increased our outreach to provide you with even greater access to the top influencers in the EU policy sphere. Not only this, we have continued to be the most vocal voice speaking out for a strong and robust transatlantic relationship, for multilateralism and for increased international cooperation.

We are proud of what we have achieved together. In 2021, we believe we can continue to provide the value you need to address the many opportunities and challenges in a new and changing world. We will continue to put your policy priorities first, provide new dynamic ideas and solutions, while positioning US business as central in supporting the EU's efforts to power its economic recovery and in helping reboot the transatlantic relationship. We will continue to be the best representative for US business committed to and invested in Europe. Our reputation as a trusted policy partner remains strong.

We highly appreciate your commitment to AmCham EU and we look forward to continuing our work together in the coming year. I welcome any questions or comments on how AmCham EU can better serve you.
